The sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light. The stars will fall from the sky and the powers in the heavens will be shaken...Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that Christ is near, at the gates. (Mark 13: 24-25, 28-29)

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel. As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home, And where people are refreshed, reconciled and renewed.

Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home,
And where people are refreshed,
reconciled and renewed.

Making the Case to Support Xavier and Year-end Giving

First we want to thank all of you who have given so much of your time, talent, and treasure to support our parish throughout the year. Part of our Stewardship Plan is to increase awareness of the parish's financial needs and obligations and encourage increased giving to help reduce the size of our forecasted operating deficits in the years ahead. In September we outlined in the bulletin our $2.1 million operating budget and the various programs that your donations help support. Since then we have been asked to contribute an additional $100,000 annually to support the Global Regional School System of the Archdiocese.

This year we are budgeting a deficit of $173,502 and are projecting operating deficits totaling $619,000 over the next 5 years until the restoration loan is paid off. To help reduce our deficits and continue to fund our programs without the need to use our cash reserves we conducted an increased giving program last fall with the goal of increasing our Sunday collection by 25% over the previous year. Although we did not reach our stated goal we did increase our Sunday collections by 17.1%. Our thanks to all those who participated in this program. Although we have sufficient cash reserves to cover these deficits, our reserves will fall below the level we've set aside to fund unexpected building repairs or other emergencies.

Over the past five years we have emphasized our reliance on the income from our 17th St. rental property to help sustain the basic operations of the parish. To illustrate that point we have shown below what our deficit would be if our budget no longer included the rental income and our loan payment. Last year our rental income was $10,000 more than our Sunday collections.

	Budget	Actual
	2015/16	2014/15
Total Revenue minus Rental Income	1,270,200	1,393,431
Total Expenses minus Loan Payments	1,683,515	1,580,288
Net Support Over (Under)	(413,315)	(186,857)

Through financial transparency in the publishing of quarterly and annual reports, and other information in the bulletin each of us now has knowledge of parish finances, enabling one to make an informed decision around parish support. In light of the above, we ask that you prayerfully consider increasing your total giving, especially your Sunday, maintenance, and holiday collections. Our goal is to increase our total collections by 20% over last year. Such an increase will allow us eliminate this year's projected deficit! By way of example if each parishioner contributing $20 each week, increased the amount they give each week to $24 we could completely eliminate this year's projected deficit. We recognize that some of you may not be able to increase your giving or to that level, but perhaps there are others who are doing better and can contribute more.

As the end of the year approaches, we begin to reflect upon the many blessings bestowed upon us. The end of the year also provides a great opportunity to thank God for these blessings by gifting to the parish. The benefits of income tax deductions, capital gains savings and other financial benefits are significant advantages that provide an incentive to make a gift at the year-end. A gift can also help support the parish for years to come. There are many different ways of contributing a gift.

Two of the easiest and most direct methods to gift are donations of cash and appreciated stock or other investments. You can also make other financially advantageous gifts such as real estate, life insurance, charitable remainder trusts, gift annuities, will/trust bequests and IRA/retirement accounts. For more information on how you can help make a difference by contributing a year-end gift please contact Father Marina in the parish office.

Thank you.

From the Desk of Jacqueline Falco

They say the only thing that is constant is change. Well, I can surely attest to that, as I came to Xavier a redhead, size 6 in my 40's and I'm going out a size 12 blonde, approaching my 65th birthday. I've been around for 3 pastors, 3 provincials and, yes, 3 popes. John and Moraima are the only employees that remain here since the day I came. Since then, Cassie delivered twins. Ms. Luz Diaz is now Dr. Diaz. I hired Stephanie and Damely as receptionists and they are now running the show. As for Jasper, I hired him when he was a student attending Xavier High School and am proud to say he is now a teacher. Greg, and Stephanie worked here, left and returned. It's been a joy to work alongside Justin, Alex, Rachel, and Elisabe as well as getting to know Fr. Sean. Xavier High School has been an extended part of our family and it's been a pleasure working with many of their staff members. I am grateful for our Jesuits, in particular, John Mullin SJ, Rocco Danzi SJ, Matt Roche SJ and our former provincial Dave Ciancimino SJ. You don't have to search far to find Christ in these walls when your parishioners are people like Marge Zwanziger and Jackie Walker. Yes, we are a family at Xavier and it will be difficult for me to leave the nest. I don't know how my days will be without my "daughter" Moraima. She had better never forget her Xavier Mamma!

As in any family there are difficult times. I was here for 9/11, Hurricane Sandy and far too many funerals. I remember Dennis and me getting on a train to Washington for John's mother's funeral. When my mother was critically ill and my husband battling cancer, I knew it was providential that God sent me to work at Xavier. Had it not been for Fr. Ned and so many of you, lending your support, I don't know how I would have coped.

Fr. Ned moved on and along came Fr. Joe (Costantino) with Fr. Peter. We are truly blessed to have Father Peter with us as he gives us his all, day after day, year after year. Fr. Joe C. informed Moraima and me of his intentions to renovate our rundown offices. We didn't believe him and then it all came to fruition. Our offices and our church were renovated. I'd like to think I assisted him along the way in this grand project. There was much theatre and it was a great show!

So, Fr. Costantino moved on and Fr. Marina returned to us; here comes providence again. We worked alongside one another when Fr. Ned was here. And yes, more blessings to follow! My son gets married in Europe and Fr. Marina helped me in the planning of a beautiful Mass of Thanksgiving and reception here in New York. Then one year later I travelled to Italy for the birth of my grandson. Here again, Father Marina in his generosity surprises me with a great celebration upon my return. Yes, as head of our family he has given me much to be thankful for. His schedule shows no mercy; the visits to the hospitals alone are overwhelming. It is no easy task being the pastor of this magnificent parish. So now, in this particular scenario the story changes: Jacqui moves on, not the pastor.

While there are far too many of you to mention, I must give a shout out to our counters, Bob Ferrara, Eugene Curtis, Paddy Loughlin and Rosa Pergola whom I have worked so closely with every week for all these years. You're the best! And finally, I want to also thank our accountant Emil Rufolo, truly, a class act!

With great affection I was given the name Sister Danger, then La Jefa and now as I retire and begin my new journey on another continent, my name has changed again. So "Nonna" leaves you with that great song "Goodbye, this is where our story ends...goodbye, let our hearts call it a day, but before I walk away I sincerely want to say,....I wish you love".
