I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what God gave me, but that I should raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life. (John 6: 37-40)

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel. As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home, And where people are refreshed, reconciled and renewed.

When I was first asked to teach catechism at St. Francis Xavier, I was hesitant to say yes. I love working with kids and I was excited to impart Catholic teachings to young members of the community, but I knew waking up early on Sundays would be a challenge. I was used to hanging out with friends late at night on Saturdays and I sometimes work on weekends. Committing to becoming a catechist would mean giving up my Saturday night social life and/or the extra income that I could earn on Sundays. But I said yes (which I believe was the work of the Holy Spirit), knowing that our church was in need of catechists. I was really worried, but on the first Sunday class, all my fears and concerns left me. It was an amazing experience meeting my students and teaching them lessons I've grown up with. It also helped that the Family Faith Team members are supportive of each other, as is the whole parish community. And my social life and extra income? Well, my friends were supportive and encouraging with my new "vocation" and we made plans to get together at other times. As for the extra income I could have earned, God blessed me with more than I could've asked for. Being a catechist at St. Francis Xavier is one of the most fulfilling experiences I have ever had and I am very glad I said yes.

PAPAL ENCYCLICAL ON THE ENVIRONMENT (7TH INSTALLMENT)

In his encyclical on creation care, Pope Francis highlights “integral ecology” as the basis of the conversion we are all called to in order to save our common home from destruction. “Integral ecology” is the profound, fundamental interconnection between God, human beings, and all the rest of creation. With Pope Francis we pray, “Triune God... Give us the grace to feel profoundly joined to everything that is.” As we reflect on our relationship to life-giving water, the air we breathe, and the ground we walk on, let us think of actions that we can take locally to protect the air, water and land for the generations to come. We might consider supporting legislative bills of our city, county or state that will serve to do this. For more information please visit www.sfxavier.org/environment.
