After Jesus had finished speaking, he said to Simon: “Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch.” When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing...Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” So when they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. ## FROM ASHES TO FIRE: A PARISH RETREAT

Lent and Easter are upon us once again. We begin our ritual journey with ashes and move to the fire of Pentecost. This is a time of repentance and renewal both for those already baptized and those seeking to be baptized. The journey is one of conversion, to sharpen our own baptism commitment and pass that commitment on to those who will join us.

There is a parallel between the journey of the Easter season and the journey of the Ignatian Exercises. In the Exercises, a first week deals with sin, and the invitation is to see that we are loved sinners. A second week invites us into companionship with Jesus, and to stand with him as he speaks the love and mercy of God. A third week leads us into his suffering and his death, to share with him his loneliness and isolation. Conversion here is surrender just as he surrenders. And a fourth week invites us to see God in all of creation. See what God sees; love what God loves. Each week calls the person to conversion.

In like manner, Lent and Easter are also a time of conversion. In the first weeks of Lent, it is a personal journey, as the readings take us into our own unique stance before our God. “Be humble,” as they say, “for you stand on holy ground.” Those seeking to be baptized are addressed by the Holy One, and let the Holy One touch their heart. As do we all. “You are called to walk by the light of Christ, and to trust to his wisdom.” Christ calls us all into a relationship of love.

In the second part of Lent, the journey is more ecclesial than personal. To follow Christ is more than a personal journey. Our Christian life is communal: sisters and brothers made such by our relationship to Christ. We learn to say Our Father, not just my Father. We learn to say we believe, not just I believe. We look again to the waters of life and hear the promise of freedom. We welcome Christ on Palm Sunday, sharing food with him on Thursday, simply be with him on Friday and then know again how the waters make us one with Christ. He is alive. We are alive with him.

The third level of conversion is harder. We must let Christ go. This conversion moves from the following of Christ in the Church to becoming Christ as the Church. This is finally the Easter mystery. The resurrected Christ remains incarnate and we the living Church become his living embodiment.

A final conversion is the profound awareness that we are the primary proclamation of Jesus Christ to the world. Christ sends us on mission. He does not exist in this world apart from us. “As the Father has sent me, so I send you ...”

So we move through the journey once again with hope and expectation: that together we might grow into Jesus Christ, for ourselves, for our Church and for our world. But as in any retreat, the passage for each of us must take us where we are and allow the Lord to lead us where he will. That takes patience, faith, humility, and most of all deep confidence that God is the one who leads us forward.

LENTEN & EASTER BIBLE STUDY: THE EARTH, THE BIBLE AND US

Facilitated by Lizzie Berne DeGear

Last Year on Pentecost, Pope Francis delivered his encyclical “Laudato Si: On Care for Our Common Home.”

This year, as we make our way through Lent, and then celebrate the mysteries of Eastertime, moving once again toward Pentecost, let us delve deeply into Laudato Si. Let us also revisit what our Scriptures have to say about creation, and connect with our planet on a whole new level.

We will begin Lent together on Ash Wednesday (February 10) – gathering outside by the Hudson River and then walking together to the evening liturgy at Xavier. We will enter into Lent by reading Laudato Si, each of us on our own, for a couple of weeks. And then beginning February 24th, we will gather weekly on Wednesday evenings through the rest of Lent and the Easter season (2/24, 3/2, 3/9, 3/16 in Lent and 4/6, 4/13, 4/20, 4/27, 5/4, 5/11 during the Easter season) sometimes in the West Room at Xavier, and sometimes outside – marveling together as the Earth takes her annual journey from Winter into Spring.

All are welcome. To register please email XavierBibleStudy@gmail.com or call Luz Marina Diaz 212-627-2100 ext 207

BE THE CHANGE: CLIMATE COMMITMENTS FOR LENT

"Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start."

- Pope Francis, Laudato Si'

Lent is an opportune time to evaluate our lifestyles and make conscious decisions that contribute to a happy, healthy planet. Together, we can follow Pope Francis' lead to choose what is good by adapting our behavior and being better stewards of the earth and her resources. Each week through Easter, the Peace & Justice Committee will be providing advice and tips on how to decrease your carbon footprint this Lent. You can begin to incorporate these actions and changes in your daily life, creating a sustainable and more earth-friendly lifestyle.

*Here is a prayer to start each week or day
(save this copy for duration of Lent)*

Start by putting yourself in God's presence. "Lord, look upon us and hear our prayer. By the penance and good works you inspire, help us to discipline our appetites and to be renewed in spirit. So that we may be better stewards of creation, help us to live simply even when our desires are great. And help us to love greatly, even when we are not loved. Grant this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever." (Adapted from the Divine Office by GCCM.)

What do I pray for? For the urgent solution of the climate change crisis. * For the grace to grow in virtue, which helps us be better stewards of creation. * For easing the suffering of the poor and those affected by disease and severe weather. * For the Church, that it may use its prophetic voice to help solve the environmental problems we face. (From GCCM)

First Week: February 7

No-meat Fridays! While this is a traditional Catholic Lent practice, reducing your intake of meat not only helps save water (it takes 1,800 gallons of water to produce one pound of beef!), but also reduces your carbon footprint since meat production is one of the largest contributors of methane and CO<sub>2</sub> gas globally.

To be involved in the parish's Care for Creation efforts, email xavierpeaceandjustice@gmail.com
