While the younger son was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.” (Luke 15: 20-21)

Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel.

As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community
Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home,
And where people are refreshed,
reconciled and renewed.

SEEKING THE LIGHT

*“In the beginning... God said, ‘Let there be light, and there was light.’ And God saw that it was good.
(Gen 1: 1,5)*

Light remains the pivotal element of God’s creation. Sun is essential to the growth of the crops that sustain us. A blackout evokes panic and chaos. Many suffer from SAD (Seasonal Affective Disorder), depression caused by the darkness of winter days. Darkness affects us both physically and emotionally. How do we respond to our need for light? We seek medical and psychological treatment. We move to sunnier climes. We illuminate our homes and workplaces with sun-imitating artificial light. We pray for our souls to be nurtured and enlightened with God’s light of grace. We eagerly anticipate the burst of flame that will accompany the chant of “Lumen Christi” at the Easter Vigil on Saturday, March 26.

This year at Xavier we are blessed with the largest RCIA group in the history of the parish. They have reached the point of preparation known as the Scrutinies, very special ancient rites celebrated on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent. These rites call to mind our need to examine (scrutinize) the areas of our lives where we are tempted to sin, in what we do and what we fail to do. The elect, having been instructed about the mysteries of sin, now long to be delivered from it. It is Christ the Redeemer, the light of the world, who makes this happen.

In the second reading for today, Paul tells the Ephesians that they once were darkness but now are light in the Lord. He exhorts them to live as children of the light for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth, reminding us once again of the value of light. The Gospel tells of the story of the man born blind whom Jesus heals and restores his sight to the light of day. These examples challenge us to seek out that light/ Earlier we spoke of the ways we provide for the physical light. How, then, do we seek out light for our souls, commonly referred to as grace? Asking God through prayer, participation in liturgy, and reception of the Sacraments are ways known to us all.

A strategy less well known is spiritual direction. In this process, you seek out a companion for your journey to the Source of Light. Once you are connected to an individual trained and skilled as a companion (director), you meet with that person regularly. First you learn the most appropriate style of praying for you. Your director will then help you find God working in all the aspects of your life and environment and to become more aware of your response to God in these areas. The process requires you to be willing to share your inner feelings, and to be open to the Spirit speaking through this guide. At first, you may find this difficult because you are not familiar with sharing your spiritual journey. All that is required, though, is the desire to be closer to God and to take the risk of growing this way. The rest is in God’s hands for us to experience.

If you wish to explore the possibility of experiencing spiritual direction, please contact either Rose Allocca at allocarose@gmail.com or Marie Bannister at mariebannister1@gmail.com

CARE FOR CREATION

Forgo plastic bags: make it a point to carry reusable bags with you as you run your errands this week. According to the EPA, between 500 billion and a trillion plastic bags are consumed worldwide each year, wasting natural resources and harming natural wildlife. Do what you can to stop this trend and reuse!

MARCH IS WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH!

The history of women in the Catholic Church continues to manifest. Male and female, we are all called to co-create that reality, moving forward in Christ, despite any past or present obstacles.

Towards that end, here are words of strength, perspective and experience from Joan Chittister, OSC, a Benedictine nun who has been hailed as an advocate for women in the Church:

*The moment a woman comes home to herself, the moment she knows that she has become a person of influence, an artist of her life, a sculptor of her universe, a person with rights and responsibilities who is respected and recognized, the resurrection of the world begins.

*Only ideas keep ideas flowing. When we close our minds to what is new, simply because we decide not to bother with it, we close our minds to our responsibility to ourselves - and to others - to keep on growing.

*Contemplation is a very dangerous activity. It not only brings us face to face with God. It brings us, as well, face to face with the world, face to face with the self. And then, of course, something must be done. Nothing stays the same once we have found the God within.... We carry the world in our hearts: the oppression of all peoples, the suffering of our friends, the burdens of our enemies, the joy of every laughing child....

Stay tuned for more throughout the month of March from Xavier's Women's Ministry.

Lenten Reconciliation and Adoration

Monday, March 21st
3:00pm-9:00pm

On Monday, March 21st, across the Archdiocese of New York, churches will offer the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Jesuit confessors will be available in our church from 3-9pm and the Blessed Sacrament will be present on the altar during these 6 hours. Please come to avail yourself of the grace of reconciliation or simply to rest and pray for a while as we make our way toward the great season of Easter. All are welcome.

For Your Safety

Please do not use the altar steps when crossing our sanctuary space. We have had several falls over the last few years and it is much safer to use the side ramps. Your cooperation in this important matter is very much appreciated.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

*"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan."
(Joshua 5:12)*

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.
