Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel.

As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home,
And where people are refreshed, reconciled and renewed.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Every Palm Sunday for the past 40 years I have created a presentation of the Passion that involves visual elements in concert with the reading. I wanted to share this with my new parish and so by the time you are reading this, you will probably have seen it. Since the sanctuary space at Xavier is configured differently than either St Ignatius in Chestnut Hill or Trinity Chapel on the BC Campus, I am adapting the work for this space. I'm hoping it will be as effective here as it has been in other spaces. Although the majority of "performers" are Xavier parishioners, there are as well professional actors and dancers with whom I've worked before. It's always a thrilling experience to "retell" this central story of our Christian faith. In my retelling this year, I have added a character who represents the Holy Spirit. Will see how it works!

As you most likely know, each of the 4 Passion Narratives are very different one from another. The voice and theology of the Evangelist shapes the story according to the needs of his community. This year we hear Matthew's version which is fraught with many difficulties for a "modern" listener. Matthew was writing for a Jewish/ Christian community who was struggling with their identity as Jews who had come to belief in Jesus as the Messiah. The "other" Jews who did not recognize Jesus as the Messiah are portrayed in Matthew's version not only as the 'enemy' but also as those responsible for the death of Jesus. (Those of us who have just finished reading Amy Jill Levine's "The Misunderstood Jew" know how complex this issue is). For that reason, I have "edited" some of the text that is very controversial and has been the cause of anti Jewish sentiment for centuries. We need to hear the story of God's love for us in Jesus Christ without assigning blame to a whole people.

In addition to this unique presentation of the Passion on Palm Sunday, there is a danced evening prayer on Wednesday the 12th at 7:30. I have been doing this kind of service during Holy Week for the past 27 years. I think it's a very good "primer" for the triduum. This year it is called What Wondrous Love is This and I'm using the framework of the Seven Last Words for the service which is comprised of music, dance and reflections on the Seven Last Words. In addition to the Xavier dancers, there are professional dancers from NY and Kingston Jamaica whom many of you saw in Christmas Revelations. I hope you will be able to join us for this special service.

I'm looking forward to praying with you during the holiest season of the year!

Peace!

Fr Bob

Thrive for Life Prison Project Inc. was founded by Zach Presutti, SJ of the USA Northeast Province of the Society of Jesus. Thrive for Life offers spiritual and educational services and resources to incarcerated and formerly incarcerated men and women. Thrive for Life is comprised of two programs: CONTEMPLATION and ACTION.

CONTEMPLATION is a retreat program rooted in Ignatian spirituality that invites participants into an encounter with God's loving presence through the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits. What are the Spiritual Exercises? To paraphrase St. Ignatius, "By the term Spiritual Exercises is meant every method of examination of conscience, of meditation, of contemplation, of vocal and mental prayer, and of other spiritual activities... For just as taking a walk, journeying on foot, and running are bodily exercises, so we call Spiritual Exercises every way of getting ride of our skewed thoughts, feelings, and behaviors, and then once they are gone, to seek out and find what God is inviting us to in our life that will lead to the ultimate goal of being the loving and generous person we are created to be." The Spiritual Exercises are offered in six (6) correctional facilities in the metropolitan New York area.

ACTION is life skills programming for incarcerated and formerly incarcerated individuals. ACTION provides education knowledge to adult learners preparing to reenter the community. ACTION provides books for three libraries in the New York City Department of Corrections.
