Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel.

As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community
Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home,
And where people are refreshed,
reconciled and renewed.

From the Pastor's Desk

Now that the Triduum and Easter Sunday are completed, I wanted to thank the countless people who made these three days and Easter Sunday such a beautiful and reverent experience of prayer and community. The musicians, dancers, environmental artists, liturgical ministers (lectors, ministers of communion and hospitality, coordinators), the RCIA team and parish and staff who worked “behind the sanctuary”, all contributed to make these days such an exquisite expression of faith and worship.

But let's not forget that Easter is not just a day it's a whole season of 50 days. We have so much to look forward to. Today we celebrated the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation for those in the RCIA who were already baptized in other Christian Churches but who have asked to be part of the Roman Catholic community. Later on in the Easter season we will celebrate First Eucharist with our children and Confirmation with our teens. Much to celebrate!

I'd also like to invite you to another parish “read” during the Easter season. What I would like to suggest is that we read Richard Rohr's The Divine Dance: The Trinity and your Transformation. There would be three conversations: Sundays May 7, May 14th, May 21st. We would meet from 10:15 till 11:15. If you are interested, in reading, please let me know.

May the blessing of the Risen Lord Jesus be with you during this beautiful and joyful season of the year!

In the Risen Christ,

Father Bob

WHOM SHALL I SEND?

A Musical

Saturday, April 29th

7:30pm

The call of the disciples... The call to conversion... A story of faith, love and friendship

Director and Choreographer: Carol Ferrone, Musical

Director: Gerard Deman, Jr.,

Script By: J.s. Pecorella

Music by: Laurence Rosania, Michael Ward & others

Featuring: Nikki Casseri, Kyle Jack, Diane Meck
Elijah Noll and Brandon Schraml, Tony Bartoli, Percussionist

Whom Shall I Send?, an exciting new musical, finds its roots in the New Testament as it depicts God's call to the disciples and their response. The play explores the humanity of the disciples – their doubts, fears and joys – as they respond to the call of the risen Christ. The energetic dialogue, vibrant songs and dances celebrate the spiritual journey of Peter, Paul, John, Mary Magdalene and Lydia. It explores the unique way that each character is called by God and inspires audiences to reflect on the call of God in their own lives. This poignant and moving drama engages the audience in a story of faith, love and friendship.

The Xavier Company is a group of professional actors, singers and dancers in residence at St. Francis Xavier Church in Manhattan under the direction of Carol Ferrone, who holds a PhD from Columbia University. The Xavier Company has been producing musical plays that proclaim the gospel and explore themes of spirituality and social justice for more than 30 years in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Pennsylvania. Whom Shall I Send has been previously performed at St. Malachy's, the Catholic Actors Chapel in New York and for the American Bible Society.

Please mark your calendars for Whom Shall I Send, an inspiring event for the Lent and Easter Season.

Please mark your calendars for this very powerful and timely event:

FILM SCREENING AND DISCUSSION

Thursday, May 4th

6:30 PM in Keenan Commons

31 West 15th Street 3rd Floor

(Doors will open at 6 PM)

13th is a powerful 2016 American documentary by director Ava DuVernay. Titled after the Thirteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution which freed the slaves and prohibited slavery (unless as punishment for a crime) it explores the “intersection of race, justice and mass incarceration in the United States”.

The film will be followed by discussion of:

- The fact that 25 percent of the people in the world who are incarcerated are incarcerated in the U.S., which has only 5 percent of the population;
- How the “war on drugs” contributed to the rise in the number of people in prisons despite the rate of crime declining since the late 20th century;
- How the over-incarceration of adults has severely damaged generations of black and minority families and their children;
- How private prison contractors have entered the market to satisfy demand as arrests and sentences increased, forming an independent group with its own economic incentives to criminalize minor activities and lengthen sentences to keep prisons full.

We hope to see and hear from you, your families, and your friends at this event. Peace and Love.
