“The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, ‘You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.’ So they went off. ## Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel.

As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community
Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home,
And where people are refreshed,
reconciled and renewed.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

I try to write these letters to you on Monday mornings so that the events of the past weekend are still fresh in my mind. (Besides the bulletin deadline is Tuesday!) Yesterday Luz and I with the assistance of a wonderful RCIA team began the first session welcoming inquirers who are interested in learning more about our faith and our community. There are 9 unbaptized and 8 who have already been baptized. It's very edifying to hear the stories of these "seekers" and their openness to respond to a call to participate in the Church community. This morning at the 7:45 Mass I asked the community gathered if they would hold these newcomers in prayer, praying especially that their spiritual journey would bring them closer to Jesus Christ who is the center of our Christian faith. I would ask you to pray that they may come to encounter Jesus the Christ as friend, companion and Redeemer.

This past weekend I was also able to offer a movement/dance workshop for members of our parish as well as members of the NY Sacred Dance Guild. It was a great joy to share the gift of dance with all. I hope that we will be able to incorporate some of these dances in our liturgies in the near future. In fact, the first will be this coming Sunday as part of the Concert to end Gun Violence at 2PM in the Church. David Haas's Prayer for Peace is a "piece" that I'd like to share with the community. I hope you will be able to join us for this gathering that includes prayer, song, dance and witness.

In this Season of Creation, I hope you will have the opportunity to experience the beauty of the world in which we live and find time to reflect on ways in which you can offer your support for the efforts that our parish is making to increase awareness of the challenges facing our environment. This coming weekend I'm celebrating a wedding in the Berkshires so I certainly will have the opportunity to see and know the beauty of creation! So if you don't see me, that is where I'll be.

Blessings!

Fr. Bob

THE XAVIER IMMIGRATION INITIATIVE INVITES YOU TO JOIN OUR BISHOPS SPEAK UP FOR DREAMERS

USCCB leadership deplors the cancellation of DACA and calls on Catholics to act:

The USCCB statement declares: "The cancellation of the DACA program is reprehensible. It causes unnecessary fear for DACA youth and their families. These youth entered the U.S. as minors and often know America as their only home. The Catholic Church has long watched with pride and admiration as DACA youth live out their daily lives with hope and a determination to flourish and contribute to society: continuing to work and provide for their families, continuing to serve in the military, and continuing to receive an education. Now, after months of anxiety and fear about their futures, these brave young people face deportation. This decision is unacceptable and does not reflect who we are as Americans..."

We strongly urge Congress to act and immediately resume work toward a legislative solution. We pledge our support to work on finding an expeditious means of protection for DACA youth. As people of faith, we say to DACA youth – regardless of your immigration status, you are children of God and welcome in the Catholic Church. The Catholic Church supports you and will advocate for you."

The Executive Committee of the USCCB urges Catholics and all people of good will to contact their representatives in Congress to urge the passage of the DREAM Act or similar legislation as a prompt, humane, and durable solution to this problem of greatest urgency.

HEALING MASS FOR THE FEAST OF THE ARCHANGELS

Friday, September 29th
7:30pm-Main Church

President: Fr. Daniel Corrou, SJ

A healing mass offers an invitation to join with the community in a Eucharistic liturgy and pray for our own needs and the needs of our loved ones. Whatever your burdens might be, please come and place them in the hands of our loving God. Each person will have the opportunity for an individual healing prayer that includes anointing with blessed oil and laying-on of hands. It is a time of peaceful prayer, a time of resting in God's presence and a time of spiritual renewal. Please come and join in our prayer for healing. All are welcome!

“I am Stewardship Prayer”

I recently found this prayer (no author was cited) on many different church and diocesan websites. I appreciated its encompassing vision of Stewardship. Stewardship is more than just about the money. As Christian Stewards we are the caretakers of all God's gifts. Gratitude for these many gifts is expressed in our prayer, worship, offerings and action. Stewardship is a way of thanking God for all our blessings by returning to God a portion of the many gifts (everything we have — our time, talent, and treasure) that we have been given. This prayer is really a pledge about being good stewards of our parish. Join me in taking the pledge of being a good steward here at Xavier.

My parish is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.

It will be holy, if I am.

Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work.

It will be prayerful, if I pray.

It will make generous gifts to many causes,

if I am a generous giver.

It will bring others into worship, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity and mercy,

if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.

Amen.

XAVIER NAMED ONE OF THE TEN 10 MOST BEAUTIFUL CHURCHES IN NEW YORK

TimeOut Magazine in a recent article named Xavier as one of the 10 most beautiful churches in New York. But we didn't need them to tell us that did we? The lead picture in the article is of the interior of Xavier. The article can be found on line at www.timeout.com/newyork/things-to-do/beautiful-churches-in-nyc. The article states that “It's no secret: The old New York is disappearing, especially when it comes to beautiful churches in NYC.” Xavier is here and open today, where all are welcome, because of the generous support of generations of parishioners. Thank you for supporting Xavier.

SEASON OF CREATION

Both the Season of Creation and Pope Francis' encyclical, Laudato Si' (Praise Be to God) were inspired in part by St. Francis of Assisi, and his gentle way of seeing the grace of God in all living things. His oft-cited prayer, "The Canticle of Creation" was written in three sections: praise of God for the physical elements of our world (sun, moon, stars, wind, water, fire, and earth which sustain us); praise for those who forgive; and praise for sister death. The Canticle was written shortly before his death when he was filled with gratitude for all of God's creative acts that bring forth and sustain life itself. Also well-known is the St. Francis prayer "Make Me a Channel of Your Peace" which we sing in our liturgies. We rarely hear about the part of St. Francis' life where during the period of warfare between the Christian and Muslim world, he risked his life to meet with the leader of the Muslim world, Sultan Malik Al Kamil, to try to forge peace. As we celebrate this Season of Creation, let us remember that St. Francis cared not only for the birds and flowers, but for people and peace.

When we see the images of a polar bear stranded on a chunk of ice, or see a sea turtle with a piece of plastic rings from a 6-pack of canned sodas caught around its neck, let us mourn our sins against nature and ask forgiveness for those sins. And let us acknowledge that ultimately our sins against nature and creation affect our brother and sister human beings. As Fr. Bob dramatically pointed out last Sunday with the story of his mother fainting when he and his brothers would fight, our sins affect those around us.

Our collective sins of not caring more for our common home and the world our grandchildren will inherit are already affecting island nations and shore communities by forcing them to relocate. Right now our actions that create greenhouse gases are affecting the amount of moisture in the atmosphere which is bringing about unprecedented rain deluges and flooding, and at the same time is also resulting in increased surface heat that is creating drought in large areas where farming is essential to people's survival.

We are creating climate refugees among communities of people least able to deal with the impact of our collective indifference.

Let us remember, "Whatever you do to the least of these, you do to me." Let us be inspired by both of St. Francis' prayers and by Laudato Si' to do what each of us can to change some of our practices to better care for our common home, for all of God's creatures, and for our brothers and sisters.
